VOL. LXXX—NO. 33. WILMINGTON, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1906. WHOLE NUMBER 12115.

OUTLINES.

A deed of heroism seldom equaled was performed off Providence, R. I., by Mitchell M. Bruso, a Greek sailor on board the tug Luckenback, who single-handed rescued two men from a barge from which three others had already been drowned.——In the Senate yesterday Senator Lodge introduced a resolution calling for international inquiry into inhumanities in the Congo Free State; in the House a resolution was introduced to provide for an investigation into the high price of lumber; a bill was introduced to prohibit Senators and Representatives from serving public service corporations.——The Census Bureau bulletin issued at Washington yesterday reports 10,025,445 bales of cotton ginned to December 1.——In order to relieve the money stringency Secretary Shaw will deposit $10,000,000 of government funds in National banks North and South and West.——At Herkimer, N. Y., yesterday Chester E. Gillette was sentenced to be electrocuted January 28 for the murder of Grace Brown, but he declared his innocence on the eve of sentence.——At a conference of the representatives of Virginia's interest in the R. F. & P. railroad, William H. White, of Norfolk, was chosen for President; he is opposed to the proposed sale to the Pennsylvania.——Opposition to Charles J. Bonaparte as Attorney General yesterday prevented the confirmation of Attorney General Moody as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court; the objection to Bonaparte is that in a speech in Chicago he opposed trust regulation and is not now regarded as the man to enforce anti-trust laws.——A severe gale caused loss of life and shipping damage at San Francisco esterday.——The Norwegian Parliament yesterday conferred upon President Roosevelt the Noble Peace Prize for securing peace between Russia and Japan.——Secretary Metcalf has refused to furnish the Senate with the letters and telegrams concerning the Japanese school controversy at San Francisco.——New York markets; Money on call strong 6 to 28 per cent, ruling rate 22, closing bid and offered at 6; spot cotton 5 points advance, closing steady at 11 cents; flour dull and about steady; wheat steady, No. 2 red 80 1-8 elevafirm; corn barely steady, No. 2 53 1-2 elevator.

Some men in Europe insist upon being considered "noblemen" in face of the fact that they shirk work by inveigling American heiresses into matrimonial entanglements.

In Paris there is a school where drivers are taught the hygienic care of horses. Everybody will admit that there is a wide field for education of that kind in this country.

A bank clerk up North has embezzled $12.98. The figures indicate that he is married and took the money to enable his wife to take advantage of the price of some article marked down from $13.

Much ado is being made at Quincy, Ill., because a skeleton was found beneath the floor. Finds like that, however, do not create half the talk that would be brought up over the discovery of "the skeleton in the closet."

A tooth alleged to have been taken from Napoleon's head, sold at $37.50 and $3,000 was given for one of Sir Isaac Newton's teeth. The amount named last is nothing to what some aspiring statesmen would give for President Roosevelt's shoes.

The Rev. T. Boyd Gay is on trial at Utica, N. Y., on the charge of peeping through the blinds of the private apartments of ladies. Unless he can prove a complete alibi the jury wil be sure to consider his name as circumstantial evidence against him.

A few days ago the Hon. Bellamy Storer, of Chicago, who was bounced from the post of Ambassador to Austria-Hungary, gave out a letter which President Roosevelt wrote to Mrs. Storer quarreling with her for meddling in diplomatic affairs in Rome. Storer lost his job through his wife's conduct and the ex-Ambassador's letter the other day was in vindication of both her and himself. He declared that the President was caught in his own trap and now the President makes a 5,000-word reply pronouncing Storer as guilty of "peculiar perfidy" and the utterer of an "absurd untruth."

NEW TRIAL IS GIVEN

Supreme Court of United States Granted Motion of Attorney Geo. L. Peschau.

TO FACE JURY AGAIN

Condemned Mutineers in Wilmington Jail Winners in Most Extraordinary Proceedings by Highest Tribunal of the Land.

Washington, D. C., Dec 10.—(Special).—Arthur Adams and Robert Sawyer, the negroes convicted of mutiny and murder in Wilmington, N. C., whose death sentences were commuted to life imprisonment last Tuesday by the President, may yet go scott free. At least this opportunity was practically given them to-day by the Supreme Court of the United States which issued an order revoking the death sentences, and extended the opportunity of going before the United States Circuit Court of North Carolina to ask for a new trial.

The case of the negroes is a most anomalous one and is without precedent so far as the Supreme Court is concerned. The motion for a new trial was made last Monday and was apparently not recognized by the President, who on the following day commuted the death sentences to life imprisonment. However, the court took no notice of this act of executive clemency and so far as the Supreme Court Judges are concerned the two negroes are sentenced to be hanged. Officials of the court say this is the first case of the kind on record. The decision which was announced by Chief Justice Fuller, was an oral one. While the court did not say as much, the inference is plain that it was much impressed by Scott's confession exonerating the convicted negroes, and came to the conclusion that they are entitled to a new trial, which it is reasonable to believe will be accorded them. As between life sentences and a new trial it is almost certain that the convicted men will choose the latter alternative.

The fact of the commutation of the sentences of the prisoners did not figure in the case as presented in the Supreme Court and it will now rest with them to take advantage of the leave granted to make their application to the Circuit Court. That Court will also be at liberty to exercise its discretion in case the application is made.

The first news of the granting of a privilege for a motion for a new trial in the Circuit Court of the State by the Supreme Court of the United States in case of Adams and Sawyer was received yesterday in a private telegram from Messrs. Blair & Thomas the Washington attorneys who were associated with Mr. Peschau in pressing his case before that highest tribunal of the land. The telegram was to Mr. George Rountree, of this city, who was associated with Mr. Peschau in making up the first appeal. The action of the Supreme Court in this regard is a high compliment to Mr. Peschau, who worked on the point he discovered with great zeal and succeeded in having it recognized by the court after great labor and considerable expense incurred in Washington. It is regarded as almost certain that Judge Purnell, to whom the matter now comes, will grant the new trial and there are many who believe that an absolute acquittal will result.

The bar of that county asked that he hold his first court there. Attorneys from Greenville were before Gov. Glenn today in the interest of Sylvester Barrett, who will be hanged December 18. Coroner Jordan held an inquest today over Clyde Jones, the young white farmer shot by Arthur Hodge. Jones ante-mortem statement was filed that Hodge whipped out his pistol, saying, "That is what I give them when they do not suit me," fired and ran. One witness swore Hodge in buying the pistol from him said he knew all about pistols that he had been in the penitentiary and was going there again. A deaf mute swore he saw Hodge shoot, holding the pistol as if he were trying to conceal it. Other witnesses said Hodge and Jones were talking on the corner. The coroner committed Hodge to jail without bail. He will be tried at the January term.

Rocky Mount, N. C., Dec., 10.—The North Carolina Conference adjourned sine die today after the reading of the appointments by Bishop Wilson. There is a change of the presiding elder of the Wilmington district but in only one of the pastorates of city churches. Rev. W. L. Cunniggim, of St. Paul's church Goldsboro, is made presiding elder of the Wilmington district and Rev. K. D. Holmes, of Roxboro, is assigned to the Fifth Street church, vice Rev. Alpheus McCullen. CRESTON CLARKE TO-NIGHT.

Local Society Interested in Engagement of Eminent Star.

Local society, if it follows in the wake of society elsewhere, will be out in full force to-night at the Academy when Creston Clarke will present the modern emotional drama, "The Ragged Messenger." Society, which must always have something new to interest and amuse it, is just now devouring with avidity all the information it can obtain regarding settlement work and the atmosphere of this new play is said to be pregnant with the lights and shadows of life in the slums of New York, where the principal character, John Morton, the clergyman, is known as "The Ragged Messenger." The recent marriage of the wealthy scion of one of America's foremost families to a poor, obscure young Jewess, whom he met in the down-town missions, the daughter of Russian peasants, has undoubtedly whetted the desire of society to learn more about these humble workers among whom two of its leading members have now found brides. Seats are now on sale.

SPEAK ON TEMPERANCE.

National Lecturer of W. C. T. U. Here This Week—Appointments.

Mrs. N. W. Curtis, of Sherman, Tex., as, National lecturer for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will be in the city this week and will deliver a series of lectures on temperance—at the Frst Baptist Church Thursday night, at Brooklyn Baptist Church Friday night and at Grace Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday night. She is said to be a most interesting speaker and is in the South to deliver lectures in all the principal cities. Already she has visited a number of places in Eastern Carolina and has been enthusiastically received. She was in Raleigh Sunday and spoke in the Academy of Music, being introduced by Governor Glenn. Both the men and women of the city are cordially invited to hear her. here.

The Winkfield Ashore.

The big British steamer Winkfield, which cleared Saturday with a record-breaking cargo of cotton for Bremen, while proceeding down the river Sunday morning, drawing over 22 feet of water, swung ashore about opposite Kidder's mill. The tides just at present are not high at best and the vessel will hardly be floated before Wednesday. She is hard and fast on a shoal.

THE CARNIVAL HERE

Attractions are Being Placed on Fifth Street—An Excellent Band—Children's Day Thursday—The Voting Contest.

The attractions of the Barkoot Amusement Company reached the city from Anderson, S. C., yesterday and the Eagles' Carnival City is going up rapidly from Fifth and Hanover streets north. The attractions all present a very attractive appearance and the management assures the public that all re clean and wholesome. The grand opening will be this afternoon at 2 o'clock and great arrangements are being made by the management for that event. The K. G. Barkoot Royal Italian Band, if you please, is a really fine organization and appeared on a serenade in the down-town sections of the city last night, delighting an unusually large crowd. This band will play an open-air concert this afternoon at 1 o'clock at Front and Princess streets and the public is cordially invited to come out. The Carnival will open an hour later.

Thursday has been decided upon as Childrens' Day at the Carnival and all children under 12 years of age when accompanied by their parents will be admitted free on that afternoon. A special effort will be made to please the little folks.

In the voting contest up to last night the committee declared the following result: For the most popular lady: Miss Mae Galloway, 2,753; Miss Lillian Knight, 2,642; Miss Allie Pridgen, 1,325; Miss Lucy Burkheimer, 721. For the most popular candidate for Mayor A. M. Waddell, 1,429; P. Q. Moore, 1,149; Wm. E. Springer, 1,083.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.

Gentleman From Boston Given Thirty Days—Other Cases Tried.

William Wooten, colored, of Boston, was the most interesting character in police court yesterday. William had been guilty of cursing and violently abusing an officer at Fourth and Bladen streets Saturday night. He set great stakes on the fact that he was from "Bosting." When the Mayor heard that he gave him 30 days on the rock pile without further comment. The "gemmen from Bostin" informed the Mayor that he desired to have a word. The Mayor repleied that the court was no debating society and the Bostonian resumed his seat.

John Bowden, alias George Bowden, charged with the larceny of junk and brasses from the A. C. L., was bound over to the higher court under bond of $100. A white man similarly charged will be tried today. The arrest was by Officer C. E. Wood. Other cases yesterday were as follows: Tom Boon, John Covington, James Edwards, fast driving, $10 and costs each; Jno. English, drunk, $10 and costs; Jack Williams, colored, drunk and disorderly, $10 and costs; Emeline Brown, drunk, 30 days on the farm; William Canady, drunk and disorderly, 30 days on the roads; Calvin Jones, disorderly, conduct, $10 and costs.

A TIMELY COMPLAINT.

Citizen Complains of Reckless Riding and Driving on Street.

Editor Star—The writer has on many occasions recently noted the reckless manner in which negro boys coast down Market street at the rate of 10 to 15 miles an hour. On Saturday afternoon the little daughter of Dr. Harriss was run over on this street and severly injured which may result in the permanent disfigurement of her face. The reckless scoundrel who carelessly ran over her did not stop to see the result but made himself scarce. Every effort is being made to find him and if he is caught he will be summarily dealt with and will not soon forget such recklessness and utter disregard of human life. The authorities should take some steps at once to break up this practice and if necessary keep a mounted officer on duty on this much traveled thoroughfare to prevent a repetition of such accidents which will most surely lead to more serious trouble.

CITIZEN.

DeRosset Development Company.

Mr. A. D. O'Brien, of Matthew & O'Brien, civil engineers, is in Fayetteville on several emergency projects, among which is the work of the DeRosset Development Company. It is learned that Monticello Heights is going forward rapidly and that the proposition is proving to be a great success.

COMPROMISE VOTED

THE MEETING LAST NIGHT

Spirited Session Results in Granting Only Part of Ministerial Association's Requests—Ordinance as Junk Dealers.

The Board of Aldermen at its special meeting last night unanimously adopted the ordinance urged by the Ministerial Association prohibiting obscene pictures and music in places where spirituous liquors are sold under penalty of forfeiture of license and adopted a compromise measure for the ordinance urged by the ministers, prohibiting the sale of liquor and groceries under the same roof, the chief object sought by this latter measure being the confining of the sale of liquor to the down-town portions of the city. For the latter measure, by a vote of seven to two, the two members opposing being in favor of a more stringent regulation, the Board passed an ordinance or resolution that in the future it would grant no license to sell liquors except upon condition that the said license be revocable upon evidence that liquor had been sold or given away or allowed to be drunk on the premises by any woman and that where liquors are sold in combination with groceries that the two departments be separated by a wall, curtain or partition, obstructing the view from front to rear and vice versa. The motion was not reduced to writing, but the above is the substance of the resolution, which was later in the meeting made effective on December 15th.

The action was taken after a caucus of the Board in the Mayor's office and after a rather spirited session in the open, the latter being attended by an immense crowd, some in sympathy with the dealers, some with the ministers, while others were indifferent. There was also a large delegation present to see what action would be taken upon the plumbing ordinance, which went over until the next meeting for report from the ordinance committee. The other matters considered last night were very stringent laws governing the junk dealers of the city and the passage of an appropriation for the purchase of 12 riot guns as recommended by the Chief of Police after the recent wholesale butchery on the streets of Asheville by a negro fiend.

The meeting was called to order shortly after 8 o'clock by the Mayor, members of the Board filing in the room from the caucus by edging their way through the crowds that surrounded "the pit." The Mayor stated that the object of the meeting to be that of considering the memorial from the ministers' association. Rev. R. W. Hogue, spokesman for the committee, was called upon to address the Board if he so desired. He asked that the resolution be read by the clerk and this was done. Mr. Hogue then spoke briefly, stating that the task upon which he was engaged, was not a pleasant one; that the matter had been presented merely as a moral issue and that no effort had been made to lobby or create any more than a public sentiment in favor of the moral issue involved, leaving is entirely with the intelligence and moral stamina of the Board.

The clerk then read the first ordiance requested in regard to obscene pictures and music, as follows:

"No lewd or nude pictures or obscene music shall be allowed in any saloon, store or public building. The penalty for such offense shall be the permanent forfeiture of license to conduct the business the guilty parties are engaged in."

The ordinance was at once carried unanimously by an aye and nay vote. The second proposition was then read at the request of the Mayor, which was as follows: "That no liquor shall be sold in the same establishment with groceries or other merchandise."

Alderman W. H. Yopp moved to adopt. The chair interrupted to say that his position on the liquor question was very well known in the community; that he believed high license and strict regulation of the traffic was the only proper solution of what is known as the liquor problem. He would suggest that the Board go on record as granting no license to persons who would sell, give or barter liquor to any woman, minor or drunken person. He

CORTELYOU IN A DELICATE POSITION.

President Roosevelt in his message to Congress urges the passage of an act to prohibit corporations from contributing to political campaign funds, and it seems that the President's urging such a law will place Secretary Cortelyou in a delicate position. It will afford the opportunity to make a fight against Cortelyou's confirmation as Secretary of the Treasury, and also to severely criticise President Roosevelt for his inconsistency. In other words, the action of the President in selecting Cortelyou to be the Republican National Chairman, when he was Secretary of Commerce and Labor, dealing all the time with corporations, is an old scandal that will be reopened and much will be made of the fact that after Cortelyou was made National Chairman he did proceed to rake in contributions from the corporations. During the campaign the press of the country severely criticised the President for what was apparently a purpose to get a National Chairman who would be in a position to get the corporations to come to time.

In view of the appointment of Secretary Cortelyou to be Secretary of the Treasury the New York World strongly urges the Senate not to confirm Cortelyou, as a person not fit to hold that position in the Cabinet. The situation as it stands is thus presented by the Savannah News:

"There is some spsculation as to why the Senate delays action on the Cabinet nominations. It is usual to act upon such nominations promptly. Is there objection to the nomination of Mr. Cortelyou for the position of Secretary of the Treasury?

"At lease one New York newspaper, the World, has thrown out the suggestion that Mr. Cortelyou ought not to be placed at the head of the Treasury Department. because he is the chairman of the National Committee of the Republican party, and also because he collected a vast campaign fund, much of which was contributed by corporations.

"During the campaign of 1904 Judge Parker, the Democratic nominee for President called attention to the fact that Mr. Cortelyou had been Secretary of Commerce and Labor, one of the bureaus of which was that of corporations, and that, therefore, he was familiar with the inner workings of the corporations. He didn't say that because of Mr. Cortelyou's knowledge of the affairs of the corporations they had been more liberal in their contributions to the fund to elect Mr. Roosevelt president, but that inference was so plain that the President made an indignant denial, that any facts coming to Mr. Cortelyou while at the head of the Department of Commerce and Labor, had been the means of making the corporations more liberal in their contibutions to his campaign fund. The statement made by Judge Parker and that made by the President were the subject of a great deal of comment at the time.

"The law requires that the Secretary of the Treasury shall not be directly interested or concerned "in carrying on the business of trade or commerce." The World asks if Mr. Cortelyou is not directly or indirectly interested in the corporations who contributed to the Republican campaign fund. It may be that the reason the Senate delays to confirm the cabinet nominations is this question which the World asks.

"If this matter should be brought up in the Senate there is likely to be an interesting debate bearing upon campaign contributions by corporations. It came out of the life insurance investigations that three life insurance companies of New York contributed nearly $150.000 to the Republican campaign in 1904, and it is probable that other corporations contributed large sums. The President in his message, recommended legistlation prohibiting corporations from contributing to campaign funds, and this recommendation may be made the basis of attack upon the nomination of Mr. Cortelyou.

"It is also a matter of interest in this connection that Mr. Cortelyou is still the chairman of the National Rupublican Committee. It is apparent that a pretty strong case against the advisability of making Mr. Cortelyou Secretary of the Treasury could be made out. There is enough in it to enable enemies of the President in the Senate to make an unpleasant situation for him."

Cortelyou will no doubt be confirmed but evidently he will have to "take a heap," and the President will share the criticism with him.

$40,000,000 RUBBER COMPANY.

The New York Times mentions that on Saturday last the Inter-Continental Rubber Company, capitalized at $40,000,000 was incorporated in New Jersey. The same paper notes that the general purposes of this company are similar to those of the Continental Rubber Company, organized some months ago, but the incorporation papers of the new company filed at Trenton Saturday show no connection with the Continental Rubber Company in which the Rockefeller and Ryan interests have invested. It was reported, however, that Thomas F. Ryan is interested in the Inter-Continental Company.

One suggestion was that the Inter-Continental, which, in addition to being authorized to manufacture and deal in rubber, has the right to operate steamships and railroad lines, will be made the operating company for the Congo rubber concessions recently obtained by Mr. Ryan from King Leopold of Belgium. It is recalled, however, that the understanding at the time the granting of the concession was announced, was that the Congo concession would be handled by a foreign corporation.

The Inter-Continental Rubber Company's capitalization is divided into $10,000,000 of preferred stock, entitled to 7 per cent. dividends, and $30,000,000 of common stock. The incorporators are William C. Sherwood, Louis Sherwood, and Richard F. Tulley, all of Jersey City.

The probability is that the rubber business of the world is to be controlled in the United States.

Is there a bad taste in your mouth and is your breath foul?
Do you experience a sense of impending calamity?
Are you becoming thin and haggard?
Then you have dyspepsia!
Many people think these symptoms will pass away of their own accord. They will not! Dyspepsia never cures itself—even the best scientists often fail to cure it.
We know of but one remedy that will positively cure this disease—Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets.
These tablets furnish the one element necessary to enable the stomach to digest food and to again take up the work of supplying nourishment to the famished body.
We have seen them effect many marvelous cures. We do not know of a single instance where they failed to greatly benefit the sufferer.
We want you to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, and agree to return your money if you are not more than satisfied with the result.

Price 25 cents per full size package.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout gravel disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filter right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

E Poezolt, merchant tailor of Eighth South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism and her ankles were all puffed up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankle and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, Sole agents for the United States.

The Under Side of Fish.

Experiments have been made with flounders in order to determine whether the whiteness of the under sides of those fish is due to the exclusion of light, and the presence of color on their upper sides to exposure to light. The fish experimented upon were kept living in a glass tank, having a mirror placed beneath, so as to reflect light upon the under sides of the fish. One of these prisoners survived for three years under conditions so strangely different from its ordinary habits of life, and all of them exhibited the development of spots of pigment on their lower surfaces. The experimenters concluded that it is exposure to light that causes the coloration of the upper parts of the bodies, not only of flounders, but of other fish, and, conversely, that it is to the comparative absence of light that the whiteness of under sides of fish is due. They extend the same principle to explain the colorless condition of the skins of many animals that pass all their lives in caves.

Bird Songs.

Naturalists have long been puzzled as to how birds learn to sing. Does it come natural to a bird of a certain species to sing the song common to its kind or does it learn to imitate whatever song it most hears during the early days of its life? Experiments made by a well known student of bird life proved that most birds simply learn by imitation. He placed young linnets to be reared by skylarks, woodlarks, titlarks and other breeds, and in every case the linnet learned the song of his foster parents. Again, a number of linnets were reared where they had no chance of hearing the song of any bird at all. In due course they began to sing, but their song was entirely original. The cuckoo, however, seems to be an exception, for although it is almost invariably reared by foster parents of any species but its own, it always sings to perfection its own peculiar song, quite uninfluenced by the vocal efforts of its guardians.

Origin of the Strike Fund.

The earliest mention of a strike fund occurred in the strike of the Parisian stocking weavers in 1724, when a crown a day was subscribed for every striker and all blacklegs were mercilessly boycotted. But the biggest strike under the "ancient regime" was that of the silk factory hands at Lyons in 1744, when 12,000 men went on strike and so alarmed the mayor that he conceded everything they asked and wrote to his brother that he had "la tete cassee par cette vile canaille." The "vile canaille," however, had had their moment, and it was no longer theirs. Two months later the king sent down 20,000 soldiers "pour remettre l'ordre dans la bonneville de Lyon," and we hear no more of strikes till the supreme strike of 1789.

A Snail's Sense of Smell.

Professor E. Yung of Geneva discovered that the keen sense of smell attributed to the ordinary snail is distributed over the entire body not covered by the shell, the two pairs of tentacles, the lips and the edges of the feet being particularly sensitive. In the experiments made a brush dipped in various odorous substances in turn was brought near the different parts of the body, and responses were noted at distances of one twenty-fifth of an inch to several inches. Only in exceptional cases was odor perceived as much as fifteen or twenty inches away, showing that smell cannot guide these creatures to food far removed.

The Mulberry Tree.

Silk is the great industry of northern Italy, and the plains of the quadrilateral are dark with mulberry trees. The mulberry tree is the hardest worked piece of timber in the world. First its leaves are skinned off for the worms to feed on, then the little branches are clipped for the worms to nest in, then the large limbs are cropped for charcoal, and the trunk has not only to produce a new crop of leaves and limbs for next year, but must act as trellis for a grapevine.

His Bucolic Business.

"That was a perfectly lovely gentleman I met last night," declared the pretty milliner. "He has a good, reliable business too."

"What is it?" asked her friend.

"Why, he sells farm implements," continued the pretty girl.

"What kind of farm implements?"

"Buckets—nothing but buckets. He told me he kept a bucket shop."—Detroit Free Press.

Ptomaines.

Ptomaines, according to Quain, are alkaloids produced by the decomposition of animal substances. The word ptomaine was at first restricted to alkaloids produced by cadaveric decomposition, but it is now also employed to designate alkaloids of animal origin formed during life as a result of chemical changes induced by some agency or other acting within the organism.

Youth and Pleasure.

Youth is not the age of pleasure. We then expect too much, and we are, therefore, exposed to daily disappointments and mortifications. When we are a little older and have brought down our wishes to our experience, then we become calm and begin to enjoy ourselves.—Lord Liverpool.

Fortune.

Fortune is like the market, where many times if you can stay a little the price will fall, and again it is sometimes like a sibyl's offer, which at first offereth the commodity at full, then consumeth part and part and still holdeth up the price.—Bacon.

A proper secrecy is the only mystery of able men. Mystery is the only secrecy of weak and cunning ones.

Rain Coats

When you need a Rain Coat, you need it bad.

No matter how many overcoats you may have, there is nothing to take the place of the useful Rain Coat.

When old "Prof" says rain put on your rain coat, and if his prediction doesn't come true, it will answer all the purposes of an overcoat.

Many men wear them all through the clearest weather. They like them beause they are not so clumsy as a rgular overcoat, yet their length protects the limbs.

Prices $12.50 to

would suggest that as a substitute for the more drastic action proposed by the ministers.

Alderman J. O. Brown rose to say that he wanted to do as near right as possible. He moved that the substitute proposed by the Mayor be adopted as a substitute for Alderman Yopp's motion. It was seconded by Mr. Karr and Mr. O'Bren.

Alderman Rathjen read his views on the liquor question and renewed his opinion that the matter should be submitted to a vote of the people.

Alderman Price let the cat out of the bag when he arose and stated his understanding of "what we agreed to in the other room awhile ago." He favored partitioning the saloons and groceries off from floor to ceiling; that the sale of liquors be prohibited to women, minors and inebriates and that no loiterers be allowed in saloons under penalty of the law. Mr. Brown spoke at some length again and Mr. Price, evidently disgusted at the trend of affairs, seconded Mr. Yopp's motion, divorcing liquor from all groceries all together.

Mr. O'Brien said that since the matter had been agitated at the last meeting he had canvassed the dealers affected and they were willing to all reasonable regulations; that there was an honorable set of men in the business who wanted to comply with the law reasonably. He referred to the minimum amount of drunkenness in the city especially on Sundays and wound up be exclaiming with some feeling that there were as good men in liquor business as there were in Wilmington and there were as good men who walked boldly in the front door and took their drink and walked out as there were anywhere, not excepting the preachers. He went further on to say that he respected the man who went in and took his drink open and above board and would rely upon the integrity of that man quicker than he would the man who sneaked in at the back door and then came out to abuse his fellow man. The latter remark provoked applause from the dealers in the room.

Aldeman King next spoke, saying that the matter was one of very great importance and referred to some threats that he understood had been made in the papers. He spoke of the lattice work partitions that are now used in the bars and spoke in favor of some more substantial partition, say a curtain or a wall to obstruct the view. Mr. King seemed to sound the keynote of the action later taken.

Alderman Brown, who generally speaks his mind in whatever presence he is, dramatically declared that he was a church member and was trying to serve God as he thought best, when he wanted liquor he walked in boldly through the front door and bought it, took it home, if his pastor happened to be there and felt like a toddy would do him good, he got it, mixed in any proportion he desired. This provoked laughter and applause. Mr. Brown is of the Primitive Baptist denomination.

Rev. Hogue next asked the privilege of a few remarks and replied in one of the prettiest and most eloquent appeals ever heard in the council chamber. He referred to the fact that he was preaching to a congregation that he would perhaps never have opportunity of reaching again and he spoke as one deeply convicted of his purpose in life and as one inspired. His plea was on the broad ground that present conditions of the sale of liquor in the up-town districts was conductive to outrages by negroes of the lower element and to show the best element of the negro race itself was in sympathy with the reform movement, he read a petition from 37 prominent members of the race asking that the action requested by the ministerial association be taken. Mr. Hogue was cheered long by every man in the room to all appearances regardless of his affiliation in the movement. There is no doubt but that he made a deep impression, however much the action of the Aldemen may signify to the contrary.

Mr. Brown's substitute for the action asked by the Alderman was then stated as given above and the same was carried by a rising vote with the exception of Aldermen Price and W. H. Yopp, who were in favor of separating the saloons and groceries altogether.

The Mayor asked Rev. Mr. Hogue if there was anything further from the ministerial association.

"Nothing further at present," was the significent reply of the spokesman of the delegation as he arose and sat down with a smile.

An Echo From the Carnival.

Rev. A. J. Parker, pastor of Bladen Street Methodist Episcopal Church, was present and stated that he understood that the carnival was not to extend within a block of any church, whereas the tents were pitched right in front of his house of worship. The Chief of Police was instructed to see that the order of the committee to whom the matter was referred is carried out to the letter.

Appropriation For Riot Guns.

The Mayor called up the request of the Chief of Police for riot guns in view of the Asheville affair and introduced Col. J. T. Anthony, of the Remington Arms Co., who gave a demonstration of a very effective arm that was offered for $27 each. Chairman Karr, of the Police Committee and Chief Williams had been out during the afternoon and seen a practical test of the gun. Upon recommendation of the committee an appropriation of $324 was made for the purchase of the gun. the Board of Audit and Finance concurring.

Ordinance as to Junk Dealers.

A very salutary ordinance regulating the traffic in junk was offered as drawn by City Attorney Marsden Bellamy. A license upon written application to be signed by five freeholders and the license revocable at any time upon conviction of any violation of the ordinance is required of all dealers. A sign reading "Licensed Junk Dealer" must be conspicuously displayed in every place of business and the dealer is required to keep for inspection at all times a complete record of every sale and every purchase with the name and street address of the person offering junk for sale. No place shall be open other than from sunrise to sunset and no purchases to be made from minors except by written consent of parent or guardian. A penalty of fine and forfeiture of license is provided for infractions of the law. The ordinance has been passed upon by the Supreme Court of several States and is in operation in several cities with marked success.

The Plumbing Ordinance.

The voluminous plumbing ordinance once again bobbed up. Mr. Brown moved that it be referred to the Ordinance committee for report at the next meeting after a conference with the plumbers. A motion then prevailed instructing the committee to report on same at the next meeting.

Upon a recommendation of the committee, First Substitute J. T. Smith was elected a regular on the police force and the Board adjourned.

GILLETTE SENTENCED TO DIE.

Declared His Innocence—His Mother In Court as Reporter.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Herkimer, N. Y., Dec., 10.—Chester E. Gillette was sentenced to die in the electric chair at Auburn prison during the week beginning January 28. He will be taken to Auburn tomorrow.

The youth convicted of the muurder of his discarded sweetheart, Grace Brown showed no sign of emotion when Justice Devendorf pronounced sentence. His face was pale but his step was steady and his voice was firm when in reply to the formal question as to whether he had anything to say before sentence was pronounced he replied:

"I am innocent of the crime charged in the indictment, and it should not be passed."

Immediately after Gillette left the court room, not even speaking to his mother who sat just behind him in court, having arrived from Denver this forenoon while the son was led from the court Mrs. Gillette prepared to telegraph a news dispatch to a Denver and New York newspaper that have secured her as special correspondent in the case.

"Oh don't speak harshly of me," she said beseechingly to reporters who crowded about her. "I am doing this so I can pay my way and arrange for a new trial. It will take a large amount of money, and I was able to bring but little from home."

Gillette's counsel moved that the verdict be set aside and a new trial granted. The motion was denied as was another motion that judgment be arrested and all proceedings be set aside.

Gillette gave out a statement after he had been taken to jail. He said:

"I am very hopeful of getting a new trial. My mother is here and I am more than glad to see her but not through the bars of a cell. People thought I was hard hearted because I did not show emotion in the trial of the case. I tell you I felt very much worried and I had a hard time to control myself. I did it though."

BONAPARTE UP AGAINST IT.

Opposition in Senate to Him For Attorney General.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Dec. 10.—Opposition to Charles J. Bonaparte as attorney general prevented the confirmation of William H. Moody as associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States when his nomination was called up to-day in executive session of the Senate. The objection to Mr. Bonaparte was based upon a speech made by him in Chicago in September, 1899, before the conference held there to consider the trust question. In that speech Mr. Bonaparte declared that legislative action in regulation or restraint of combinations was undesirable. When the Moody nomination was placed before the Senate to-day Senator Culberson called attention to the fact that the position he is to vacate will be filled by Mr. Bonaparte and he then read extracts from the Chicago spech in support of an argument that Mr. Bonaparte is not qualified to take the responsibility of enforcing anti-trust laws.

Senator Knox, formerly Attorney General, said that he had talked with Mr. Bonaparte and had found him thoroughly in sympathy with the administration in breaking up combinations of capital which operate in restraint of trade. He also remarked that probably there were few men in the Senate chamber whose minds had not undergone some decided changes on many great questions since 1899, when conditions were far different from what they are to-day.

Senator Rayner started to reply to his speech when Vice President Fairbanks observed that the nomination before the Senate was that of Mr. Moody and not Bonaparte. This had the effect of curtailing the speech making, but Senator Teller said that it was customary for all nominations to go over one day after being reported from committees and he therefore objected to further consideration.

Representative Slayden, of Texas, who introduced a bill in Congress last week for the mustering out of all negro soldiers from the regular army, has received a letter threatening him with death if he failed to withdraw the bill. The letter is unsigned and bears a Washingtoin postmark.

At Uniontown, Pa., yesterday Mrs. Antonio Brosils, 55 years of age, of Footsdale, shot and killed her husband during a quarrel. Following her arrest the woman said: "He reached for the gun to kill me, but I got it first and shot him."

Senate Can't Get Information From State Department.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Dec. 10.—Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor will not report to the Senate the result of his investigation of the Japanese controversy at San Francisco as requested by resolution introduced by Senator Flint. That resolution called upon him for all letters, telegrams and reports filed with his Department in connection with his investigation of the attendance of Japanese at public schools in San Francisco. He was directed to send the information, if not incompatable with the public interest. In replying Secretary Metcalf says that his investigation was made under the authority and as the representative of the President and not to his capacity as Secretary of Commerce and Labor. He said that the report submitted by him together with official letters, telegrams and other documents were in the hands of the President and no longer were in the custody of control of the Department of Commerce and Labor. He had no power to comply with the resolution, he said or to determine whether the information desired would be incompatible with the public interest.

SENATOR BROWN MAY DIE.

Life of Man Shot by Woman Hangs by Thread.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Dec., 10.—The life of former United States Senator Arthur Brown, of Utah, who was shot by Mrs. Annie M. Bradley in his hotel apartments here Saturday afternoon, tonight is hanging by a thread. Little hope for his recovery is held out by attendants at the emergency hospital but his physician, Dr. W. P. Carr, still has some hope that his patient may survive.

Mrs. Bradley spent another restless day in her cell at the house of detention and her only thought seems to be for the man whom she shot down.

Assistant District Attorney Given today announced that "if Senator Brown is still alive tomorrow I shall issue information against Mrs. Bradley for assault with intent to kill, and she will be given a preliminary hearing in police court at once. In event of his (Senator Brown's) death murder will be charged."

Secretary Taft visited the House yesterday and had informal conferences with John Sharp Williams, the minority leader, and a number of other important members, concerning items in the deficiency appropriation bill in which he is interested. The Secretary of War is especially anxious that the appropriation in this bill for the Jamestown Exposition shall be allowed.

The trial of the Chicago packing house corporations indicted for conspiracy in restraint of trade was yesterday continued until January 10, because attorneys for both side are engaged in other trials in the United States district court.

Some Democratic statesmen and newspapers are again claiming President Roosevelt as a Democrat because of his recent message to oCngress. This comes of the fact that for some years pat a lot of folks have forgotton what a Democrat is.

Raising His Wages.

Y.—You know I told you a few days after he employed me that he said he'd raise my wages in a mouth or so?

Z.—Yes. And didn't he?

"No. I misunderstood him. He said he'd try to raise my first week's wages by that time. I haven't had a shilling yet."—London Tit-Bits.

Compromise.

"I have a little granddaughter," said a senator, "who is very fond of animals, especially dogs. Her mother has taught her to pronounce the word until it sounds like dahg. Her father sticks to the good old fashioned dawg, so the child has compromised, and now every canine is a dahg-dawg."

Peevishness.

Peevishness may be considered the canker of life that destroys its vigor and checks its improvement; that creeps on with hourly depredations and taints and vitiates what it cannot consume.—Johnson.

Probably.

Probably a woman would be a bride to her husband longer if she should continue making company of him. Most women begin to save their jam for visitors when they have been married three months.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The sweling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to rturn." John Obeyed.

Mrs. F. was a very stern woman, who demanded instant and unquestioning obedience from her children, says Chums. One afternoon as she was working in her sewing room a storm came up, and she sent her son John to close the trap leading to the flat roof of the house.

"But, mother"— said John.

"John, I told you to shut the trap."

"Yes, but, mother"—

"John, shut that trap!"

"All right, mother, if you say so, but"—

"John!"

John slowly climbed the stairs and shut the trap. The afternoon went by, and the storm howled and raged. Two hours later the family gathered for tea, and when the meal was half over Aunt Mary, who was staying with Mrs. F., had not appeared. Mrs. F. started an investigation. She did not have to ask many questions. John answered the first one.

"Please, mother, she is up on the roof."

They Scorned Doctors.

The learned ladies in olden times took great comfort and pride in their skill in medicine. With true professional scorn they looked down upon the regular doctors as upon quacks. "For God's sake beware what medicines ye take of any fyssissyans of London. I shall never trust to them because of your father and my uncle, whose souls God assoil." So wrote a lady in conscious pride. She knew she could have saved the lives of her unfortunate relatives if she had only had a chance to dose them with some of her wonderful concoctions or to have put upon them some such plasters as those for which Dame Margery Paston was famous. Her husband sent for one of her plasters for the king's attorney, James Hobarst, who was suffering with an ache in his knee, and to whom Sir John Paston felt himself sentimentally indebted. "He is the man who brought you and me together," he wrote to Margery, "and I had leaver than £40 that ye could with your plaster part him and his pain."

Grease In Wool Fabrics.

Few persons realize when they put on woolen garments what a large amount of animal fats wool contains, for to the touch woolens are not greasy. In the big clothing shops where men's garments are cut, however, the floors around the tables where electric knives clip out the odd shaped pieces soon become as slippery as though they were waxed for a dance.

"Why do you wax the floors—to keep the fabrics clean?" is a common query from visitors.

But the clothing cutters explain that this accumulation of grease comes from the friction of wool cloth over the wood. The wood's pores soon become so charged with it that they feel greasy to the touch, and even the harder woods in the cutting tables absorb from the woolen fibers so much of the animal fat that to all appearances they might be in steady use in the rendering department of an abattoir.—New York Press.

Are Ministers' Sons Bad?

A bishop marked the names of those whom he deemed worthy of remembrance for some service performed in religion or politics or literature or science or art or commerce or philanthropy or warefare, or some other aspects of the various life of the nation. Of such names he found 1,270 who were the children of clergymen or ministers, taking no account of those who were grandchildren of clergymen or more remote descendants. Of the children of lawyers, there were 510, and of doctors 350. The sons of clergymen who became themselves clergymen were 350. He further asserts that the superiority which the clergy enjoy in respect to their children to the other professions lies beyond dispute. The superiority has been not of numbers only, but of degree. From clerical homes have sprung more distinguished sons than from the homes of any secular profession.—Leslie's Weekly.

—The president used the reformed or simplified spelling throughout his recent message to Congress, and it is noteworthy how few words of the reformed list occurred in that lengthy document. It is also noteworthy how few people in the country have joined the president in his changed style of orthography. A generation hence this and subsequent messages may be cited to prove that Mr. Roosevelt was one of the most erratic and eccentric of our presidents.—Petersburg Index-Appeal.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Raleigh News and Observer, Dec. 9.—A meeting of the directors of the Bladen and Northern Railroad Company was held here yesterday, the board consisting of Messrs. E. G. Moffitt, T. L. Chisholm and D. McIver, of Sanford, A. A. Chapman, Oxford; R. T. Gray and Henry E. Litchford, of Raleigh.

—Charlotte Observer, Dec. 10.—The many friends of Dr. P. L. Murphy, superintendent of the State Hospital, at Morganton, who is in the Union Protestant Infirmary at Baltimore, where he has undergone two operations, will be glad to learn that he has rallied with the last 48 hours and is reported much improved in condition. It is believed at the infirmary that he will be at home before Christmas and that he expects to return to his work before long.

—Charlotte Observer: White Plain, N. Y., seems to be a rendezvous for negro criminals. Bud Abernethy, the greatest crook that ever lived here, went there several years ago when he escaped from the chain gang and took up a residence among the colored people of the city. Graham Farrar, charged with murdering Nooe Johnson, near Mount Holly, the tenth of November, 1905, was captured there last week. Deputy Sheriff Paul E. Lentz, of Gaston, passed through the city last night, on his way to White Plains after Farrar. He thinks that there is another bad Gaston negro there.

—Richmond, Va., Dec. 8.—Capt. R. Percy Gray, of Greensboro, N. C., after a protracted illness, died at the Hygiea Hospital in this city today in the forty-third year of his age. Capt. Gray was a son of Col. Julius A. Gray and a grandson of Gov. J. M. Morehead. For a number of years he was actively engaged in a number of industrial enterprises. His broken health is thought to have been the result of overwork. He had also taken a prominent part in the military affairs of his State. At the breaking out of the Spanish-American war he raised and personally equipped a volunteer company of which he became the commanding officer.

—Washington special to the Raleigh News and Observer, Dec. 9.—Representative Spencer Blackburn, was sued in the local courts here to-day for $215 which amount a prominent jewelry firm claims is due for a diamond ring purchased in 1903. The action was instituted by Harris and Shaffer who assert in their bill of particulars that the ring was purchased August 20, 1903. The price of the ring was $225, according to the jewelers who assert that Mr. Blackburn paid $10 on account in September of that year. Wilson & Barksdale, a local firm of lawyers, represent the plaintiffs.

—Raleigh, Dec. 10.—Clyde Jones, shot last evening in the abdomen by Ed Hodge on the street here, died today. His statement was that the killing was unprovoked murder and that there had been no previous quarrel. Hodge claims that it was accidental. The police say that Hodge is a tough character and that they are told that his father made him leave home. They say also he was drinking when he committed the murder. Jones was employed by a farmer nine miles from Raleigh and his character is said to have been excellent. Hodge when he ran and tried to force his way through the city to his horse, threw away his pistol. He had nearly 50 cartridges on his person. He is held for murder in the first degree.

—Mr. S. W. Bagley, a prominent young man and druggist, was killed by a train on the Southern at Bessemer City, Gaston county, on Saturday night. He tried to cross the track and slipped and fell right in front of the locomotive.

—Charlotte Observer, Dec. 9: Judge R. B. Peebles, in the Superior Court yesterday rendered an important and fearreaching decision when he decided in favor of the plaintiffs in the cases of Judge A. Burwell and Maj. A. G. Brenizer, against the Royal Arcanum, thus deciding that it was illegal for the Royal Arcanum to raise rates of its fraternal insurance on policies held by members of the order more than 65 years old. It will be remembered that Judge Burwell and Maj. Brenizer instituted a suit against the Royal Arcanum for the premiums they had paid upon insurance policies in the order and interest on some more than a year ago when the Supreme Council of the order raised the rates of insurance on members more than 65 years old and ordered that the ruling apply even to those who had held their policies for years. The amounts sued for by Judge Burwell and Maj. Brenizer were $1,100 and $1,300 respectively. The counsel for the defendant have given notice of an appeal to the Supreme Court.

BEGINNING DECCMBER 1ST.

Our terms are changed from "Cash on Approval," to "Cash on Delivery." For over six years we have done a strictly cash business, charging no goods on account. We are therefore the better enabled to give our customers the very best value possible for their money. Almost daily we hear some one say to us:. "We get better shoes here than from anywhere we have been.". This unsolicited commendation is very gratifying to us, and inspires us with zeal and determination to do better things for our customers and ourselves.

We earnestly ask our patrons and friends to think kindly of the movement inaugurated by the SHOE DEALERS' ASSOCIATION of this city, for the betterment of trade conditions; remembering that Wilmington is no longer a little town, but a growing, hustling, bustling city. A new era has suddenly dawned upon us, bringing us face to face with new and suddenly changed conditions, relegating obsolete customs to the puny past. These conditions have to be met as best we can. Let us stand together therefore and meet them squarely and deal with them justly, and we believe great good will follow, and no hardships will be laid upon any one.

IT'S IN THE DRAFT.

The secret of the fuel-saving qualities of this Buck's hot blast heater lies in the draft construction. It is so made as to allow large quantities of heated air to pass over the upper surface of the burning coal, thus supplying oxygen to the rising gasses, which are then converted into heating power.

Simple, isn't it? And yet it's new principle in stove building—not to be found elsewhere.

This stove will reduce your coal bill nearly one-third.

Let us tell your of its many advantages.

THE COTTON MARKET.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Dec., 10.—The feature of the cotton market today was the census report giving the amount of cotton ginned to December 1 at 10,952,445 bales, which was a little more bullish than expected and caused an advance of about twenty points in prices on local covering. There was no fresh buying in consequence, however, and prices sagged off in the late trading. The close was very steady at a net advance of 7 to 12 points. Sales for the day were estimated at 300,000 bales.

The market opened steady at a decline of one to two points and sold to a new local level for the reactionary movement in the early session with January touching 9.94 and March 10.10 under local liquidation and scattering pressure from Wall street. There was some support at the decline as a result of covering but the market had no rally in consequence until after the census figures were published when January advanced to 10.15 and March to 10.35. The census figures were a little lower than the average expectation, in spite of the three small private estimates issued last week. The market barely held its gains, closing about six or seven points down from the best.

Receipts at the ports today 64,596 bales against 84,370 last week and 48,382 last year. For the week 400,000 bales against 426,499 last week and 255,325 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 21,115 bales against 14,027 last year, and at Houston 14,306 bales against 11,355 last year.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, Dec., 10.—The drygoods market was firm today and there was an increaseed activity in domestic cottons. Converters and printers increased their engagements for forward delivery of goods. Regular printing cloths were quoted at four cents and the wide regulars at six cents spot. Many orders were ldeclined owing to the impracticability of making the deliveries required. Dress goods are well sold and buyers are now looking the new selections for the early fall. Raw silk is higher and firmer. There is a better feeling in silk goods market.

Studying Industrial and Financial Conditions.

—Washington special to Charlotte Obesrevr, Dec. 9.—A special commissioner from the republic of Colombia, who has been in Washington for several weeks studying the industrial and financial conditions in America, will leave to-morrow morning for Charlotte where he wishes to inform himself upon the subject of cotton manufacturing. His name is Senor Antonia Isquiedoro. While here he read the book on cotton written by D. A. Tompkins and this interested him so much that he determined to go to Charlotte for the purpose of meeting Mr. Tompkins. Besides being a special commissioner "in the branches of agriculture, industry, commerce and immigration," Senor Isquiedoro is himself a cotton manufacturer. He owns a cotton mill in Bogata, and he was the first one to introduce the manufacture of cotton in Colombia. He is largely interested in other enterprises in that section of the world, owing several hundred miles of land in the neighborhood of the Panama Canal, upon which are planted something like a million rubber trees. One of the objects of his visit to Charlotte is to study the latest improved cotton mill machinery with a view to making purchases for his mills. The senor does not speak English fluently, but he manages to make himself understood, and he has many interesting things to tell about his country. He is accompanied by his wife.

HIGH INTEREST CAUSES STRAIN

Secretary Shaw to Come to Relief of Money Stringencp With Treasury.

WIEL DEPOSIT $10,000,000

Tremendous Production of Country Said to be Cause of Scarcity of Money North and South—No Cause for Alarm.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Dec., 10.—Secretary Shaw had an interview today with the bankers' committee now in session in the city and later in the day made the following announcement:

"I have received in the last ten days an unusually large number of letters from business men representing all secetions of the country, complaining of the extraordinary high rates of interest. I have conferred during the same period, by letter or personally, with a large number of bankers scattered through the South and middle West as well as in the East. I have today conferred with the committee of the American Bankers' Association now in session in this city. These gentlemen represent Chicago, St. Louis, New Orleans, Atlanta, Pittsburg, Indianapilis, Des Moines, and other cities. From the best information I can get I think the following describes the situation fairly well:

"Our blessings are the real cause of the actual stringency in money, recognized everywhere. An unusually large crop and unexampled industrial activity have created an unprecedented demand for money. The world is everywhere prosperous and money is in great demand throughout Europe as well as in the United States. We never had such a volume of credits and they are based on an unequalled volume of assets. The manuufacturers of cotton are buying their staple by the train load. The cotton planter, unlike the western farmer, demands actual cash and he carries it home in his pocket. The western farmer is paid in checks which he deposits in the bank to his credit, and therefore does not absorb actual money as does the cotton planter. This money should be returned to the banks when the planter settles with his merchant soon after the first of January, but between now and then the cotton consuming country, as well as the cotton producing country, is short of money.

"New England has sent millions to the South, and the manufacturers of cotton throughout the South have exhausted the capacity of local banks and are trying to borrow elsewhere. There is no occasion for alarm, but I believe there is occasion for relief.

"This I have decided to grant in the following manner: I will deposit ten million dollars in existing depositories in the cities designated below, to be secured by bonds acceptable for savings bank instruments under the laws of New York and Massachusetts, taken at ninety per cent of their value; these deposits to be returned, one half on the twentieth of January, and the remainder on the first of February.

"I will buy ten millions of the bonds of 1907 at the following prices: Registered bonds ex-interest at 101 and coupon bonds at 102. In the event that the bonds purchased are now held as security for government deposits security of the character above indicated will be accepted in lieu thereof. Not more than one million dollars worth, however, will be purchased from any single institution under these conditions.

"The deposits will be made as follows:

"New York and New Orleans $1,500,000 each; Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago and St. Louis $1,000,000; Cincinnati, Louisville, Atlanta and Memphis $500,000."

FIGHT OVER R. F. & P. RAILROAD.

Virginia Will Prevent Its Absorption By Pennsylvania System.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Richmond, Va., Dec. 10.—At the conference of the representatives of the State's interest in the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad and of the six railroads composing the holding company which owns a majority of the stock, William H. White, of Norfolk, one of the leading lawyers of Tidewater, Virginia, was this evening agreed upon for president of the road in question and will to-morrow be duly elected to the position by the stockholders of the road in their annual meeting, his salary to be $10,000 a year. The selection of Mr. White came after the position had been practically offered and declined by several others, after they had refused to permit their names to be presented. The State's proxies insisted throughout on the selection of some other person than a representative of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and they carried their point. Mr. White was district attorney under the second Cleveland administration.

GOING AFTER LUMBER TRUST

Another Resolution Introduced in the House to Investigate High Price of Lumber—Bill to Straight Jacket Congressmen.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Dec. 10.—At the instance of Senator Culberson the Senate to-day agreed to a resolution directing the Secretary of War to furnish the Senate information as to whether the three companies of negro troops of the Twenty-fifth Infantry had ever been involved in any riot, raid or other disturbance prior to the Brownsville, Texas, affair of last August. Full details are asked.

Senator Lodge introduced a resolution relative to the Congo Free State. It resolves that in the opinion of the Senate the time has come when the affairs of the Congo Free State should be made the subject of international inquiry. The Senate advises the President that in any steps he may deem it wise to take in co-operation with or in aid of any of the powers signatories of the treaty of Berlin which shall seek to ameliorate the condition of the Congo Free State, and redress any evils now existing there he will receive the Senate's cordial support.

Senator Mallory introduced a resolution requesting information of the President as to the present status of the fishing schooner Silas Stearns, siezed by the Mexican authorities.

More than a hundred private pension bills were placed on the calendar with favorable reports, a few private relief bills were passed and the consideration of a child labor bill for the District of Columbia was begun.

The House.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The House today began consideration of the Legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. No efforts were made to limit the time for general debate on the bill, the desire of the Republican leaders being to keep the bill before the House until adjournment for the Christmas holidays.

Simplified spelling held the attention of the House for an hour or more, the paragraph in the bill fixing the orthographic standard in some recognized authority, furnishing Mr. Clark of Missouri, Mr. Gillett, of Massachusetss and Mr. Livingston, of Georgia, an opportunity to express themselves on the merits of the President's order to the public printer relative to the modified speeling of 300 words in common use.

Representative Gillette, of Massachusetts, declared that the three hundred words advocated by the President was a very modest reform and in line with reform in progress in newspapers and magazines. Mr. Clark, of Missouri, humorously calculated that it would take 400 years t reform the English language by adopting 300 yords a year. He thought the reform was puerile and suggested that he would make only one bite of the cherry and would adopt the phonetic spelling and the short hand system of writing. Under the wide latitude of debate Mr. Macon, of Arkansas, delivered a speech on "bucket shops" and in favor of his bill prohibiting gambling in agricultural commodities, and Mr. Shepherd, of Texas, criticised the manner in which the appropriation bills are prepared.

Representative Miller, of Kansas, introduced a resolution requesting the Secretary of Commerce and Labor to investigate the causes of the high price of lumber and report whether it is due to the manipulating of corporations.

Representative Randall, of Texas, introduced a bill to prohibit Senators and Representatives from serving or receiving any pay from public service corporations. Violations of the prohibition are to be a misdemeanor punishable by fine of from $100 to $5,000 adn by imprisonment of from one month to one year. Members violating the prohibition are to be forever barred from public office.

The Senate Committee on Judiciary yesterday authorized a favorable report on the nomination of William H. Moody, the present Attorney General, to be an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. A favorable report was ordered also on the nomination of Charles J. Bonaparte, the present Secretary of the Navy, to be Attorney General, and Alford W. Cooley to be Assistant Attorney General.

RARE HEROISM OG GREEK SAILOR

Singlehanded He Rescued Two Men From Foundering Barge in Raging Sea.

HE WAS COATED WITH ICE

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Providence, R. I., Dec., 10.—A tale of heroism seldom surpassed was brought to this city today by the tug Walter A. Luckenbach. When every other man on board the tug declined to risk his life in an effort to save two men of the foundering barge Buena Ventura which was in tow of the Luckenbach , off Montauk Point last Friday, Mitchell B. Bruso, a Greek seaman, stepped up to Captain John Daly and said that he would make the trip alone. In a small boat at the height of a fierce northeast gale Bruso rowed to the barge and rescued the captain, Olle Owarsond, whom he found frozen to the topmast and as soon as he had placed the helpless captain on board the tug without a moment's rest, and covered with a coating of ice from head to foot, put out again and released Seaman Charles Martin, who was frozen to a floating hatch on which he had been carried away from the sinking barge. The two men of the crew of five were the only ones to escape death. The drowned were S. Peterson, engineer, address unknown; John Mallet, deck hand, address unknown; Deck hand known as Jack Hoyt, Fall River.

The heroism of Jack Bruso was looked upon by his shipmates as no less remarkable than his escape from death in the little boat which every moment seemed likely to be swamped by the mountainous seas. The barge from which the three men met death was, before being converted for the coal carrying trade, a Spanish tramp steamer. She was the first prize of the United States, immediately after the war with Spain broke out, the gunboat Nashville capturing her while she was bound for Cuban ports. The Beuna Ventura, coal laden, was the last of a tow of three barges which left Norfolk, Va., in tow of the Luckenbach. The other barges, similarly loaded, were the Carrie Clark and the Annie H. Smith.
